

511 responses from Westchester County parents & guardians.

31%

Report technology has made their child's learning more difficult.

27%

Experience stress due to technology at least once a week.

INTERNET AFFORDABILITY

35%

of participants spend $100 or more on internet access each month.

Less Than 1%

of participants receive financial assistance for internet access.

7 out of 10 participants were not aware of government affordability programs.

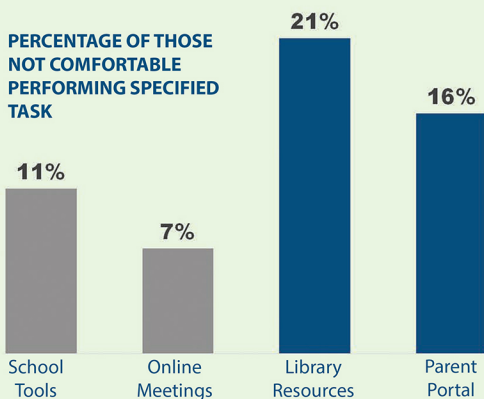

EVIDENCE OF INEQUITY

Participants who were of Hispanic/LatinX descent & participants whose primary language is Spanish were less likely to have internet access than their counterparts.

DIGITAL LITERACY

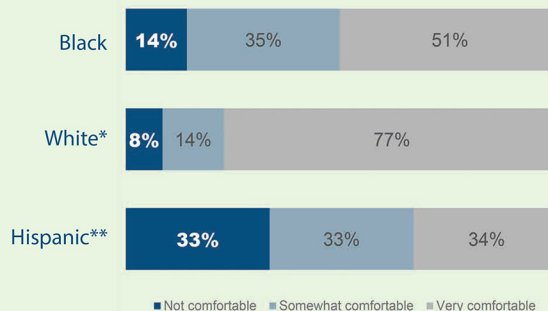

Parents and guardians reported that accessing library resources and using the parent portal were the most difficult online school tasks.

PERCENTAGE OF THOSE NOT COMFORTABLE PERFORMING SPECIFIED TASK

1 out of 5

were not comfortable making an online health appointment.

People of color reported more difficulty making online health appointments.

* White, Non-Hispanic
 Hispanic ethnicity, could be of any race.